

CEM10 by results

2149 Participants

Took part in CEM10-M14 to advance clean energy through private-public roundtables, plenary discussions and over 50 side-events.

26

25 countries and the European Commission took part in this year's Ministerial meeting and affiliated events.

Over 100 signatories

for the Equal by 30 Campaign to close the gender gap in the clean energy sector.

10th

This was the tenth Clean Energy Ministerial meeting, building on a decade of collaboration and exchange of best practices.

2 New workstreams

Dedicated to deployment of hydrogen, and the role of flexible nuclear in modern energy systems.

60 Youth delegates

From nearly all CEM countries, participated in the inaugural Youth Forum, which included an innovation jam, Ministerial debates, a policy hackathon, and other events.

847

Innovation Showcase Exhibitors from 12 countries.

666

News stories generated globally about the Ministerial meeting.

41

Global companies recognised for their work in Energy Management and Smart Grid projects in annual CEM awards.

1155

Global private sector companies took part in this year's meeting, providing input and expertise through roundtables, side events and the Innovation Showcase.