Solutions Center Background and Vision

CleanEnergySolutions.org

The Clean Energy Ministerial (CEM) launched the Clean Energy Solutions Center in April 2011. The Solutions Center:

- Is one of 13 CEM Initiatives, which include:
 - Global Superior Energy Performance Partnership
 - Super-Efficient Equipment and Appliance Deployment initiative
 - Global Lighting and Energy Access Partnership
- Helps governments design and adopt policies and programs that support the deployment of clean energy technologies
- Has more than 35 partners, including IRENA, IEA, IPEEC, Sustainable Energy for All, Bloomberg New Energy Finance and Leonardo Energy
- Is co-chaired by the U.S. Department of Energy and the Australian Department of Industry.

Laura Williamson, Communication & Outreach Manager, REN21

Laura Williamson

Laura Williamson is the Communication and Outreach Manager at REN21—the Renewable Energy Policy Network of the 21st Century—where she is responsible for promoting the efforts of REN21 to an international audience. Laura’s other activities include managing the production of specific reports and coordinating the biennial International Renewable Energy Conference. From 2008 to 2013, Laura was the Project Director for HELIO International, an international think-tank developing renewable energy solutions. Previously, she worked for the United Nations Environment Programme on industry and sustainability issues.

Sven Teske, Director of the Renewable Energy Campaign, Greenpeace

Sven Teske

Mr. Teske has recently completed a PhD thesis on grid integration strategies and infrastructural planning requirements for 100% renewable energy systems, and he took his current position as the Director for Greenpeace's Renewable Energy Campaign in 2004. In this position, he led the work on the Energy [R]evolution: a Sustainable World Energy Outlook and specific grid analysis reports for Europe and China. He was also lead author for the IPCC Special Report Renewables (SRREN)
